TO THE CONTESTANTS.

1. The Progress automobile contest will close promptly at 10 o'clock Saturday evening, absolutely no variation will be made from this rule. All subscriptions and blank vote ballots that are secured, or that are being held in reserve, positively must be at The Progress office at or before the above time. No credit can be given for subscriptions or reserve votes not actually turned in.
2. All subscriptions turned in by the contestants must be made out on the regular subscription blanks supplied for that purpose, and all blanks should be plainly marked whether new, old or extension subscriptions. Contestants should fill out the blanks as the subscriptions are received to avoid delay when they are being turned in.
3. All candidates are earnestly requested to turn in the bulk of their subscriptions as early as possible on Saturday as this will help to reduce the great rush that is sure to come on Saturday night, and will also permit the business of each candidate to be handled more privately.
4. Votes on all voluntary subscriptions turned in direct to this office will be made out and cast for the contestants named by the subscribers when the subscriptions are received. All subscriptions must be paid for as turned in.
5. All contestants should be very careful not to tell anyone how high they expect their votes to go at the finish, and they should entirely disregard any wild rumors that may be circulated regarding the votes of the various candidates.
6. All unused subscription books and blanks must be returned to The Progress office at the close of the contest.
7. Absolutely no information will be given out from this office regarding the possible standing of the various contestants until after the judges have announced the results of the final vote count and awarded the prizes. The decision of the judges will be absolute and final.

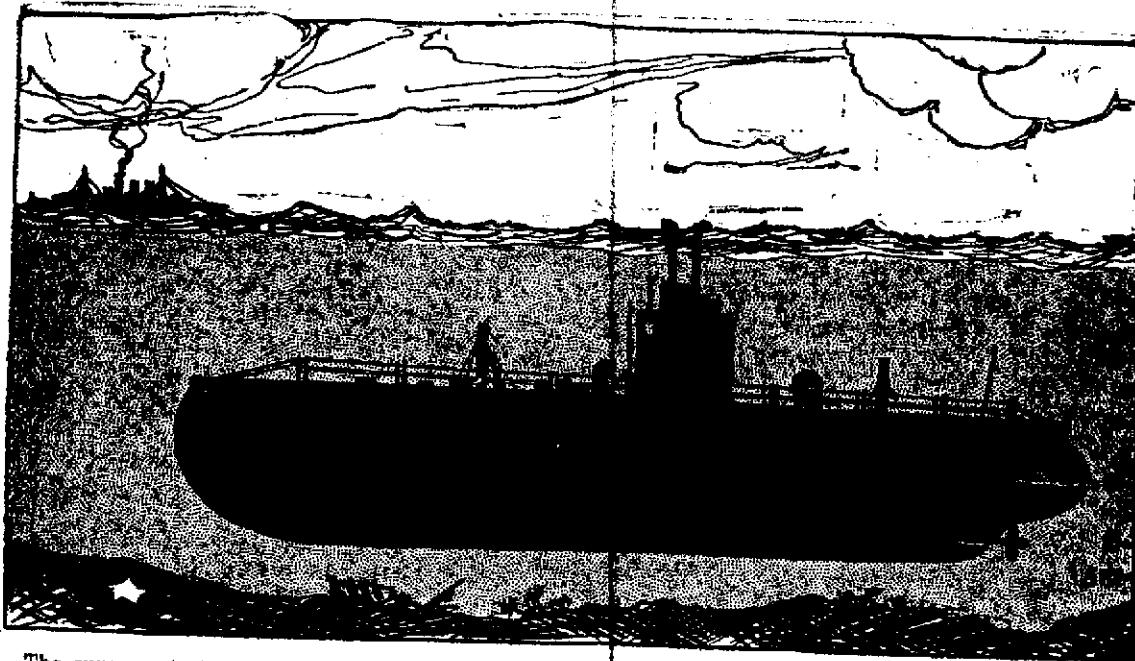

Just two more days and the big, friendly race for the many valuable prizes offered by The Progress will be at an end. Just two, big, promising and really wonderful days, all too short but each filled with possibilities, hopes and strenuous activity for all of the many active individuals who aspire to stand at the head of the list when the final reckoning comes.

The finish of The Progress contest and particularly the competition for the first prize, the Overland automobile, is sure to be the most exciting even of its kind ever witnessed in Clearfield County or in fact in this section of Pennsylvania, and the final vote count of the judges will reveal numbers undreamed of by the many hundreds of persons who have been carefully and anxiously following the progress of the contest. This is already assured by the very large reserve votes that are being held by many of the contestants as well as by the splendid success that all of the contestants are having in the subscription getting during this final week of the race. Many of the long term subscriptions are now coming in and the vanguards of the final landslide of votes are already arriving. Many of the contestants will, themselves, be surprised at the total number of votes they will poll for many of the last subscriptions will be for two, three and five years, while many subscriptions already given the contestants will be extended for a similar time. Then too there will be subscriptions sent in by mail from a distance and there will be many persons who will call in person at The Progress office, as they are doing every day, and have their subscription votes credited to the worker of their choice. All of these details will materially increase the standing of every candidate for the prizes and the distinguished honors that are so soon to be theirs.

Judges Named Tomorrow.
The official judges for the final counting of the votes and awarding of the contest prizes will be named in The Progress tomorrow and we are sure that the personnel of the committee which will have charge of this important task will meet with the hearty approval of everyone. The unquestioned integrity of these gen-

How the Deutschland Must Sneak Out in Sixty Feet of Water.

The supreme test of the navigating ability of Captain Paul Koenig and the success of the German merchant submarine Deutschland will come on his trip out the mouth of Chesapeake Bay from Baltimore. Before he reaches that line else he will be sunk. But at the line there are only sixty feet of water. The depth of the Deutschland from superstructure to keel is forty feet, and that means that the periscopes, wireless and other must be taken down so they will not show above the surface of the water. In sixty feet of water the Deutschland will have ten feet above her and ten feet beneath her at deepest part of the channel. Some navigators believe she will approach the three-mile limit and then rest on the bottom till darkness. At night she may be able to go out with her periscopes a few feet above the water.

LOSE MILLION YEARLY THRU FIRES IN WOODS

Harrisburg, July 20.—At least 5,000,000 acres of land in Pennsylvania are kept in a non-productive state because of forest fires, and at a minimum figure the people of the state are losing $20,000,000 which might be realized from the products of the soil.
"This is the statement made by George H. Wirt, chief forest fire warden, in the first report of the operations of the fire prevention service made to the governor today.
"With repeated fires and continuing erosion the absolutely barren land is on the increase," declares the report, which estimates that 500,000 acres of forest land in the state is damaged by fire annually. The state loses $1,000,000 a year directly from fires in the woods.

POSSIBILITY OF TRADE WAR DEPRECIATED TODAY

Washington, July 20.—(By United Press)—A possibility of a trade war with England from her blacklist policies is depreciated by many officials here today. They say that the Bryan Arbitration treaty might prevent the United States from taking any retaliation measures for a year. By that time the necessity for the blacklist will have ceased.

CONNELLSVILLE HAS CASE OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS

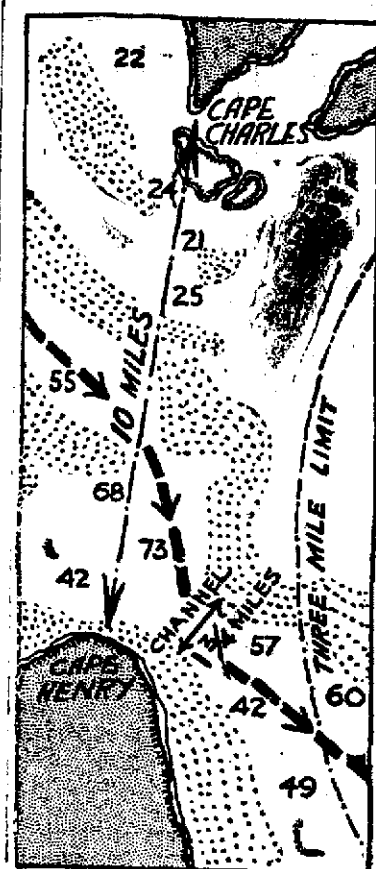

Connellsville, Pa., July 20.—(By United Press)—A case of infantile paralysis was reported today to the health authorities. Carl Cagle, five years old is the victim, and is the first case in this section. Every effort is being put forth by the physicians here to prevent the spread of the disease.

ALTOONA MAN KILLED

Altoona, July 20.—(By United Press)—John C. Eberley, employee of the Pennsylvania R. R. shop was run down by a shifting engine today, and it was necessary to jack the engine up to recover the body. Although terribly mangled, Eberley lived ten minutes after he was taken out.

Men will give ample assurance that the final auditing of the votes will be done in a most careful and accurate manner and that each candidate will receive entirely fair and equal treatment to the very end, as has been the case throughout the contest.

Where the Deutschland Must Leave America

The deepest channel for the Deutschland in her trip out of Chesapeake Bay is sixty feet at the three-mile limit, and it is close along the shore near Cape Henry. The British warships will be waiting to attack unless she submerges before she reaches the open sea.

STRIKING CARMEN DYNAMITE CAR AS IT LEAVES BARN

Motorman Receives Serious Injuries and Will Lose Sight of One Eye.

Wilkesbarre, July 20.—(By United Press)—Another trolley car of the local traction company was blown up by dynamite today making the second attempt in two days to kill the strike breakers when the first car out this morning on the West Pittston run was blown into splintered timbers and the motorman and conductor miraculously escaped instant death. The latter was unhurt and the former sustaining lacerations of the body and will probably lose the sight of one eye. He is in the West Side hospital in a serious condition.

Because of the boycott there were no passengers aboard at the time. Another traction company car on the Ashley line was dynamited late on Tuesday night and the explosion shattered the windows of several buildings. But the crew in some unaccountable manner escaped unhurt. As in the attack this morning, there were no passengers on the Ashley car when it was blown up. The local street car strike has been in progress since October 14, 1915.

SUNBURY MAN ELECTROCUTED

Sunbury, Pa., July 20.—(By United Press)—James Shaffer, 38, was electrocuted at Milton, near here today, when he came into contact with live wire 2300 volts passed through his body.

DEUTSCHLAND IS STILL DOCKED AT BALTIMORE

Baltimore, July 20.—(By United Press)—Dawn today found the German sub-sea freighter Deutschland still docked here, flanked by obscuring barges. Maneuvers before day light led to the belief that she intended to make a dash for the capes but what her plans now may be is hidden in a mystery darker than the mud beneath her. A run for the capes before or after nightfall seems logical and probable. During the night her hatches were fastened and her fore and aft masts telescoped, so that only her periscope showed.

HARRISBURG RAILWAY STRIKE ENDED TODAY

Company Gives Way on Ground of Public Opinion.

Harrisburg, July 20.—(By United Press)—Officials of the Harrisburg Railway company gave way today on the grounds of public opinion. President Frank B. Muser of the Traction company and other officials went into conference with a committee of the local union. Meanwhile the jitneys outnumbered the cars of the company fifty to one. Fifteen cars were taken out of the barn this morning, being manned by strike breakers, many who were not in uniform. This is the smallest number of cars in operation since Sunday.

STEEL WORKERS GRANTED EIGHT PERCENT INCREASE

Chester, W. Va., July 20.—(By United Press)—The American Sheet and Tin Plate company made public notice today advising its employees in a number of departments, of an 8 per cent. increase in wages, effective on August 1st. This is the second increase granted since the first of the year. Last February a 4 per cent. increase was granted.

HUNDREDS OF BIG SHARKS ARE CITED NEAR VIRGINIA

Philadelphia July 20.—(By United Press)—Hundreds of sharks, some of them 12 to 14 feet long were cited a few miles from the Virginia coast by the crew of the British steamship Capac, which arrived today from Chili. The sharks followed so closely beside the ship waiting for morsels to be thrown overboard that the sailors could easily have hit them. They followed the ship until it actually entered Delaware Cape.

NUMBER OF CASES OF EPIDEMIC DECREASING

New York, July 20.—(By United Press)—A decided decrease in the number of new cases of infantile paralysis showed in reports of the health department today, and is what physicians regard as the first real test day of the week in determining the course of the epidemic. New cases today numbered 119 against 112 yesterday. 31 additional deaths were reported as against 30 yesterday. The report today was considered distinctly encouraging.

Constitutionalist cavalry and killed. Carranza's commander reported today that he expected to engage the main body of Villistas at an early date. If the Constitutionalists forces are successful in capturing or killing Villa, it was the opinion here that this would mark the beginning of the end of internal trouble in Mexico city.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON TO MANAGE CINCINNATI TEAM

Cincinnati, July 20.—(By United Press)—A deal was closed at noon today by which Christy Mathewson will become the manager of the Cincinnati baseball club. He will take charge today.

The only thing that can stop the deal going through is the fact that Charley Herzog, the present manager, refuses to come to terms with the New York club to which he goes. The Reds get Bill McKenzie a third baseman and Ed. Rousch outfielder, in addition to Mathewson, says Herzog. Wade Kilmer goes to the Giants. It was announced that "no strings" are attached to the deal for Mathewson, and that no cash changed hands.

Paris, July 20.—With the British armies against the new German positions, behind the lines, the British north of the Somme lines are being carefully and drenched with a destructive fire of British high explosives in preparation for a new attack. Giant British shells are now dropping upon German works from guns standing miles to the rear. British artillery pieces of large and small caliber firing in unison are systematically pounding the new German front line.

The roar of the guns is continuous, and resembles the roll of thunder. The Germans are replying only occasionally. They are either without guns or are saving their ammunition. British air craft are directing the fire of the artillery. Since the beginning of the Anglo-French offensive, German air craft have been surprisingly absent. The allied flyers and balloon observers have been working in perfect security and obtaining most valuable information.

French troops resumed their offensive on both sides of the river Somme last night, and with successful results on both north and south of Peronne. It was officially announced that North of the Somme the French had attacks and established new positions along the Combles-Chermy road, the railway taking 400 prisoners. South of the Somme the French stormed and captured the captured line trench between Barleux and Soye.

British Take Last Ground
London, July 20.—(By United Press)—A little more ground taken by the Germans in their counter attack at Longueval and in Duilleul Wood has been recaptured by the British. General Haig reported this afternoon. North of Longueval on the Bazentine line, the British advanced their lines this morning and made substantial gains.

An official investigation of the Dardanelles-Mesopotamia campaign has been decided upon by the English government. Premier Asquith informed the house of commons this afternoon.

Russians Occupy Kugl
Petrograd, July 20.—Russian troops have occupied the village of Kugl. It was announced today, preventing the enemy's efforts to advance in the Ougli region.

UNIDENTIFIED NEGRO FOUND ON R. R. AT FULLER

Officials Trying to Find Relatives—Body Badly Mutilated

The body of an unidentified young colored man about 20 years of age, was found yesterday morning at 6 o'clock on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks one mile west of Fuller by the crew of the eastbound P. R. freight train. The body was horribly mutilated remains are now in a morgue in Brookville, while the railroad authorities are trying to establish the dead man's identity.

TODAY IS VISITORS DAY AT Y. M. C. A. CAMP

Boys all Settled now and Enjoying Camp Life

Today is "visitors day" at the Union Y. M. C. A. camp at Bellows along the Susquehanna river a short distance above Lumber City. Many automobile parties from Clearfield will visit the camp today. From all reports the camp is the best ever held by the three associations, everything being carried out according to plans which had been formulated before the camp opened. The boys are enjoying some splendid meals as the menu is probably the best the camp has ever had. Secretary Lewis of the Clearfield Y. M. C. A. reports that all the boys are now settled and enjoying the camp life to the fullest extent.

A LITTLE TOO PREVIOUS!

As the peaceful U-boat departs from Baltimore with ominous threats coming from German press and publicists that it is on the cards for Germany to renew the submarine warfare in its most ruthless aspects it would seem that Mayor Preston, of that easily stampeded city, who up to the last minute was ordering receptions and courtesies for the crew and the officers of the daring merchantman, might well take thought with himself and wonder what he has been up to anyhow. Hearty appreciation of the spectacular seamanship of the Deutschland is one thing; stopping over on the officials of a country whose submarines have been guilty of the most frightful crimes against humanity and neutrality is quite another. And Mayor Preston in the quiet as he chews over the sweet and bitter cup of reflection may wake up some day and realize that his courtesy has been absolutely misinterpreted in Germany and will go far to make any further discussion of the submarine controversy more futile than past discussion has been. Really, can not we have a little judicious reticence, a little dignity, in those who for one reason or another are supposed to speak for the United States on chance occasions?—Public Ledger.

UNSOLDIERLY COMPLAINTS.

It is fair to assume that the men in the ranks of the Pennsylvania regiments on the Mexican border have not been the authors of the complaints which have been sent north during the last few days concerning their treatment and their surroundings. The contributors to the Public Ledger's Soldiers' Letter Box have written in a very different spirit, recognizing that they were not off upon a midsummer picnic and that hardships were part of the soldiers' lot and to be endured with what philosophy they could command. If some of the officers have displayed a different temper, it is to be regretted that they have been enabled to reach the public ear and to convey a wrong impression concerning the attitude of the troops that have been mustered into the Federal service. The state can not be too solicitous for the proper care of its citizen soldiers, and the reports of improper and inadequate transportation accommodations during the movement of troops south were properly made the subject of investigation and protest. But the intimations that come from El Paso of discontent because of a change of camp sites and the intimation that there has been discrimination by regular army officers against the militia will arouse small sympathy at home. Hardship and discomfort are part of the lot of the men in khaki, and whining complaints are the last sounds the country will expect to hear from them.—Public Ledger.

The Duchess of Devonshire, whose husband has been appointed Governor-General of Canada, is a daughter of the Marquis of Lansdowne, a former Governor-General of the Dominion.

One of the surprises in connection with the war is the effect it has had upon the Czarina of Russia. For years she has suffered from nervous prostration, which the great specialists of Europe have failed to cure. But the war has achieved the impossible, and the Czarina is now quite her old self. It is supposed that the demands made upon her time and attention are really responsible for the cure.

Today's Geographic Study of The Great European War Zone

Baiburt, the Turkish city of Asia Minor where the Russians are reported to have gained a signal advantage recently, is the subject of the following war geography bulletin issued by the National Geographic society from Washington:

"Situated on both banks of the Churuk river, which rises nearby and flows northeast into the Black sea at Batum after a course of 200 miles, Baiburt was a town of 10,000 inhabitants at the beginning of the war. It owes whatever commercial importance it possesses to the productive agricultural lands in its vicinity and to the fact that the carriage road running from Trebizond to Erzerum passes through the latter city lying 50 miles in an air line to the southeast and Trebizond about the same distance to the northwest. Surrounding the town is a fertile plateau by the elevation of nearly a mile above the Black sea which would be almost visible to the north were it not for the Pacific range of mountains. Erzerum is 50 miles to the southwest.

"With practically no industries and with only a poor bazaar, Baiburt offers no point of special interest to the traveler. Even the castle which crowns a mass of rocks on the left bank of the Churuk is a crumbling ruin, the relic of days when Armenians and Seljiks ruled this region. But the city is of historic significance as the most westerly point reached by the Russian army under the renowned General Ivan Fedorovich Paskevich in the Russo-Turkish war of 1828-1829. The occupation of Baiburt by Gen. Paskevich marked the culmination of a brilliant campaign which in some respects parallels the present westward drive of the Czar's forces. While the Black sea fleet bombarded and seized Port, just as Trebizond was occupied many months ago, Paskevich advanced from Tiflis and in the course of a two-seasons' campaign captured Akhalzik and Ardahan, just as Erzerum was forced to yield in the present struggle.

"The Grand Duke Nicholas, under whose direction the Russian troops are fighting on the Baiburt plateau, has a keen historic incentive in the triumphs associated with the name of Paskevich. This great soldier became an aid-de-camp to his Czar at the age of 18 and when only 23 years old took part in the battle of Austerlitz, having accompanied the Russian expedition sent to aid the Austrians against Napoleon. He was a general officer at the age of 30 and after a distinguished share in the battle of Leipzig he became a lieutenant general. The first of his exploits in the battlefield where the Grand Duke is now fighting, was his brilliant conduct of the campaign against Persia in the war of 1826, and when, two years later, after the Shah had been forced to sue for peace, Russian began her drive against the Turks, Paskevich was placed in supreme command of the Asia Minor forces. A million rubles, a diamond-mounted sword and the title of Count of Erivan were among the gifts showered upon the soldier who was now a field marshal at the age of 47, having brought his campaign to a close at Baiburt. Two years later Paskevich was created Prince of Warsaw, and was entrusted with the viceroyalty of Poland. Such was the distinguished career of a Russian officer on the Caucasus frontier, and such his Little Father's recognition of his achievements.

"Manhattan, mentioned as the scene of a violent night battle at the same time that the Russians were driving the Turks from the heights east of Baiburt, is 30 miles south of the latter city and half way between Erzerum and Erzurum."

ON THE SCREEN

"HOODOO ANN"

Mae Marsh the star of "The Birth of a Nation" will be presented at the opera house tomorrow evening in a Triangle film called "Hoodoo Ann." This tells the story of a little girl in an orphan asylum, who heroically rescues one of the other girls at a fire, attracts the attention of a wealthy couple and is adopted by them. The film comes from a series of unfortunate events, in which Ann figures, that give people the idea that she is hoodooed. One of these occurrences is when she is practicing with a revolver she accidentally shoots her next door neighbor. In addition to this picture tomorrow night will be "By Stern Delivery" a great 2 reel Keystone comedy.

"THE PICTOGRAPH"

Some time ago the Paramount pictures put out a film called the "Pictograph" or the magazine of the screen. It contains several very interesting departments, such as Preparedness, edited by the leaders in the movement for better protection for the U. S. Better Babies, edited by the Woman's Home Companion, Political Cartoons, by several big city papers, Fashions, by the Delinquent Psychology by Prof. Von Wortzenburg, etc. This picture will be shown at the opera house, starting tonight and a different one every Thursday evening.

INTEREST IN WELSH-WHITE BOAT.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 20.—Daring fans are attaching much interest to the ten-round bout between Freddie Welsh and Charlie White, which is to take place in this city tomorrow night. Ever since his last meeting with Welsh the Chicago lightweight has been looked upon as probably the most formidable contender for the championship. As both men are fast, clever boxers, ring followers are looking forward to seeing one of the fastest bouts of the year.

SPEEDY COURTSHIP ENDS IN MARRIAGE.

New York, July 20.—A courtship that is probably close to the speed record was that which culminated in the marriage today of Miss Cussie Eugene Lazarovich, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Morris Lazarovich, and Joseph Helms, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Helms of this city. Miss Lazarovich met Mr. Helms for the first time on July 2 while visiting in Atlantic City, and they became engaged two days later. The families of both bride and bridegroom are well known in Jewish social circles in this city.

RUMORS STATE AUSTRIANS TREAT PRISONERS BADLY

Hundreds Die From Exposure, Hunger or Typhoid Fever.

London, July 20.—Terrible stories of the treatment of prisoners in the Austrian internment camps have reached here from what is declared to be an authoritative Italian source. Some of the details are of such a character as to be impossible for publication. On the outbreak of war all the population of Galicia known to have Russian sympathies were incarcerated in the provincial jails.

When the Russians invaded Galicia some 8,000 men, women and children (mostly of gentle birth,) were sent to the aviation camp at Thaleraf. At first they were all obliged to sleep and live promiscuously in the open. Their clothes by this time were in rags, and there were no sanitary arrangements. Many of the women and children died of hunger, exposure and typhoid. Shortly afterwards about a thousand of the interned men and women were herded together in a barn not more than 80 feet long. Any who refused to do the horrible tasks ordered them were stripped naked and flogged before the whole of the guard.

The dead were buried by their fellow prisoners just under the surface of the ground within the camp enclosure. One man who had been buried as dead turned up alive after 3 days, having succeeded in removing the thin surface of earth covered him.

The officer in command of the camp published an order in which he told his soldiers to show their loyalty to Austria by murdering as many prisoners as possible, as they were all traitors to their country. The soldiers, therefore, provoked the prisoners and tried to make them disobey orders so as to be justified in shooting them. A man having picked up and placed in his lips a cigarette that a sentry had thrown to him was instantly shot on the ground that prisoners were not allowed to smoke.

A copy of this order, it is believed, got aboard, and some after the officer was removed. The new commanding officer caused baths to be built in order to attempt to stop the spread of infectious disease, but the prisoners, men and women, were obliged to march naked to the baths, and to wait, often in the snow, until their turn came and until all had finished before being marched back again. The women, especially, were subject to all kinds of outrages, and while bathing were obliged to pose before the cameras of the officers who came from Graz to visit the camp.

This treatment is said to have lasted until Italy joined in the war, after which it became more humane, all the hate being turned against the new enemy.

FRANCE WILL RELEASE ALL AMERICANS IN CASE OF WAR

Will Give Discharge to Americans in French Army.

By Henry Wood

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, July 20.—In the event of war between the United States and Mexico or any other country, France will at once release from enlistment all the Americans now serving with the French army who may wish to return home and fight for their own country.

The officials decision of France to this effect was today communicated to the United Press by high officials of the ministry of foreign affairs.

Despite the statement recently published in German papers in America that 30,000 Americans are serving with the Allied Armies, France is unable to account for more than about 900 of them.

The release of the 70 American aviators now serving with the French army would give the United States the nucleus for an aviation service of the most priceless kind. All would be able to place at the disposal of the United States all of the secrets of French military aviation, which is universally conceded to have attained a most high degree of effectiveness.

What an influence the return of these men to America might have in all parts of the country, is indicated in the following list just prepared by the foreign office of the original American enlistments showing how they are divided among almost all the states of the union:

New York, 187; Michigan, 140; Illinois, 60; Massachusetts, 58; Pennsylvania, 51; Ohio, 50; Minnesota, 29; Washington, 27; Wisconsin, 20; Missouri, 19; Indiana, 19; California, 18; Iowa, 15; Alabama, 14; Rhode Island, 11; Oregon, 11; Nebraska, 11; North Dakota, 10; Connecticut, 10; Virginia, 9; Texas, 9; Vermont, 8; Colorado, 8; Tennessee, 6; Kentucky, 6; Maryland, 6; Idaho, 5; Maine, 5; Louisiana, 5; Kansas, 5; Florida, 4; New Jersey, 4; New Hampshire, 3; Oklahoma, 2; District of Columbia, 2; Arizona, 2; North Carolina, 2; Georgia, 2; Wyoming, 2; Arkansas, 1; West Virginia, 1.

The above list comprises only the original 875 American enlistments in the French Foreign legion. Those that have followed however, have practically the same general distribution as to states.

13-YEAR-OLD BOY IN BRITISH TRENCHES.

London, July 20.—There is a quiet, modest boy in a London suburb, the only support of his widowed mother, who has had his baptism of fire at an age when most boys are still at school. James Charles Bartaby was only thirteen years old when he succeeded, after many attempts, in joining the 7th East Surrey. Three months later he was in the front line of trenches, fighting side by side with men most of whom had double and even treble his years. He was in the firing line for nine strenuous, perilous months; and then he was wounded by shrapnel in the leg. In the hospital the army doctor discovered his real age, and on recovery he was discharged. But on his return to London he found difficulty in getting work. So he attempted to join the fighting forces again, and managed to get accepted in a battalion of an old regiment. But after his second course of army training, and while he was actually again en route for France, he was, to use his own words, "found out," and sent home for the second time.

Only misfortune followed the three persons who have previously lived here. McCull, who spared no expense and who is credited with having spent a million dollars on "Shadow Lawn" and its sixty-five acres of ground, beautified with over fifty thousand dollars worth of shrubbery and trees, an containing an artificial lake and a fifty thousand dollar stable and garage spent only one reason in the big white building on the hill before trouble came thick upon him.

The hopes of Long Beach and its wealthy summer colony have long centered in the place being the Summer White House. It has been regarded as almost too pretentious and dignified for a mere private residence.

Shadow Lawn today is a Mecca for motorists, and is visited by hundreds of sightseers daily. From the upper stories may be seen the summer homes of Presidents Grant and Garfield on the ocean, less than a mile away. An idea of the size of the building may be gained from the fact that twenty-five telephones have been installed for the convenience of the President's household.

Why

Excessive upkeep

When the venerable American bird on the back of that shiny-piece in your pocket cries out against the high cost of flivving, you wanta adjust your goggles, pull down your vest and look the matter squarely in its good eye. Poor lubrication, with its direct relation to so many car-troubles, is the first line of trenches to be taken in the Battle against Excessive Upkeep.

Just as Atlantic Gasoline, the accepted standard, was the answer to your fuel problems, so Atlantic Motor Oils are the answer to your lubrication problems.

For eight out of ten cars, Atlantic Polarine is exactly right. Under certain conditions, and with certain types of motors, one of the other three principal motor oils—Atlantic "Light," Atlantic "Medium" or Atlantic "Heavy"—may give better results. Your garageman will tell you which to use.

The important thing to nail to your memory is that one of these four oils, at any rate, is the correct lubricant for your particular car.

This statement is backed by a corps of oil experts in the employ of the oldest and largest lubricant manufacturers in the whole world.

They know oils, and they know cars, too. Better take their advice and use Atlantic Motor Oils.

Read up on this subject. We have published a handsome and comprehensive book about lubrication. It is free. Ask your garage for it. If they cannot supply you drop us a postal and the book will be sent you without charge.

Only Misfortune Followed Former Occupants of Summer White House

Long Branch, N. J., July 20.—(By United Press)—President Wilson will arrive here soon to occupy the summer capital, "Shadow Lawn", and receive formal notification of his nomination. His sojourn in this heretofore unlucky mansion should be lucky for it is the thirtieth year since the magnificent place built by the late John A. McCull of the New York Life Insurance company, in 1903, was opened.

Only misfortune followed the three persons who have previously lived here.

McCull, who spared no expense and who is credited with having spent a million dollars on "Shadow Lawn" and its sixty-five acres of ground, beautified with over fifty thousand dollars worth of shrubbery and trees, an containing an artificial lake and a fifty thousand dollar stable and garage spent only one reason in the big white building on the hill before trouble came thick upon him.

THE STEPHENS-ASHURST BILL

To Protect the Public Against Dishonest Advertising and False Pretenses in Merchandising

What is the "Stephens-Ashurst" Bill?

A bill introduced in Congress by Senator Henry F. Ashurst of Arizona, and by Representative Dan V. Stephens of Nebraska, providing a remedy for the unfair competition of great trading monopolies.

What is the character of this unfair competition?

Chiefly in advertising at "cut prices" well-known goods as a means of inducing the public to buy unknown goods of doubtful quality.

What is the purpose of the cut-price concern?

To use the reputation of a reliable article as a bait to catch the consumers, and deceive them into believing that all their goods offered for sale are sold at the same low rate of profit.

Are the expenses of the great trading monopolies less than those of the average retail merchant?

No. Trade investigations agree that the cost of doing business by these big city concerns is approximately 30 per cent., while the cost of the average small merchant is 16 per cent.

How then can the predatory price cutters undersell the independent merchant?

They can't; they only seem to. They sell things that people know at cost. On unfamiliar goods they overcharge. The consumer is deceived by the false representation that their mass of unknown goods is sold at the same price reduction offered on a few well-known articles.

What is the effect of this unfair advertising practice?

It destroys the independent merchants of the towns and small cities, builds up great chain-store and mail-order systems, and compels the sale of inferior goods by all classes of dealers.

Is price cutting in the interest of the public?

No. It means the destruction of the usual retail channels by which goods reach the consumers to their best advantage. It forces the sale of unknown articles, often of cheap and shoddy quality, instead of reliable goods which have their maker's reputation behind them. It promotes substitution.

What will be the result of the general extension of the practice throughout the country?

The ruin of hundreds of thousands of independent merchants; the concentration of trade in vast monopolies located in a few great cities; a decline in prosperity and population of the villages, towns and small cities and the ultimate injury of the consumers, by placing them at the mercy of monopolies which will then be able to extort such profits as they please for the sale of such goods as they choose to handle.

How will the bill aid in giving relief from cut-throat monopoly creating methods?

By preventing the unfair and dishonest use of well-known goods as advertising bait, and guaranteeing a uniform price to all consumers.

Will the bill operate in any way to give trade-marked goods a monopoly?

Not at all. The bill explicitly states that its provisions shall not apply to any article that is produced or controlled by a monopoly. If any manufacturer asked higher prices than his goods were worth, the public would refuse to buy, and new makers would quickly enter the field.

How can all who are interested in the prosperity and growth of our villages, towns and small cities aid in having the bill passed?

By writing at once to the U. S. Senators from their State, and the Congressman from their District, urging them to support the Stephens-Ashurst Bill, and use their influence in its favor.

NEBRASKA'S BIG WHEAT CROP IN SPLENDID CONDITION

Lincoln, Neb., July 20.—(By United Press)—Nebraska's big wheat crop today is in the shock and stack in splendid condition.

While less wheat acreage was planted in this state this year than last, weather conditions more than made up for this difference and Nebraska has one of the best wheat crops in her history. It is believed that the total crop will not be far below 100,000,000 bushels. The grain is of good quality.

Last year the crop was enormous, but the value was cut about 30 per cent by the persistent rains in harvest time. This year, weather conditions have been ideal. The dry early part of the season prevented the grain running to stalk, and the later plentiful rains brought out the heads well. There also was very slight damage by hail this year, while a year ago there was considerable damage in some sections of the state. The wheat this year is also heavier than usual.

Cutting began at the southern Nebraska line about July 1, and practically all the Nebraska crop is now in the stack or being threshed.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Troubles You

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked, from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

D., 188 miles; July 22—Fargo to Bismark, 207 miles; July 23—Bismark to Dickinson, 120 miles; July 24—Dickinson to Medora, 42 miles; July 25—Medora to Niles City, Mont., 158 miles; July 26—Niles City to Forsythe, 51 miles; July 27—Forsythe to Billings, 110 miles; July 28—Billings to Livingston, 127 miles; July 29—Livingston to Gardiner, 53 miles.

Plans for the return trip have not been made.

"AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US"

London, June 25.—(By Mail)—A British army chaplain returned from France today told of stopping at a wayside shrine in Flanders, where Belgian soldiers, kneeling in prayer, were following the chant of their priest until the father started the paternoster. At the words: "As we forgive those who trespass against us," there was silence. Not a man replied.

The priest hesitated and started again. Suddenly a steady voice rang out from the back, clearly intoning the words that pledge one to forgive his enemies. It was the voice of Albert, King of Belgians. His soldiers then repeated after him, word for word.

By GREEN.

Some advertisers make the mistake of trying to crowd a page of type into a few inches.

Display your ad. Make it catchy.

If you buy a few inches in a newspaper don't try to make them carry a couple of hundred words. Newspaper readers will not wear strong glasses to read small type.

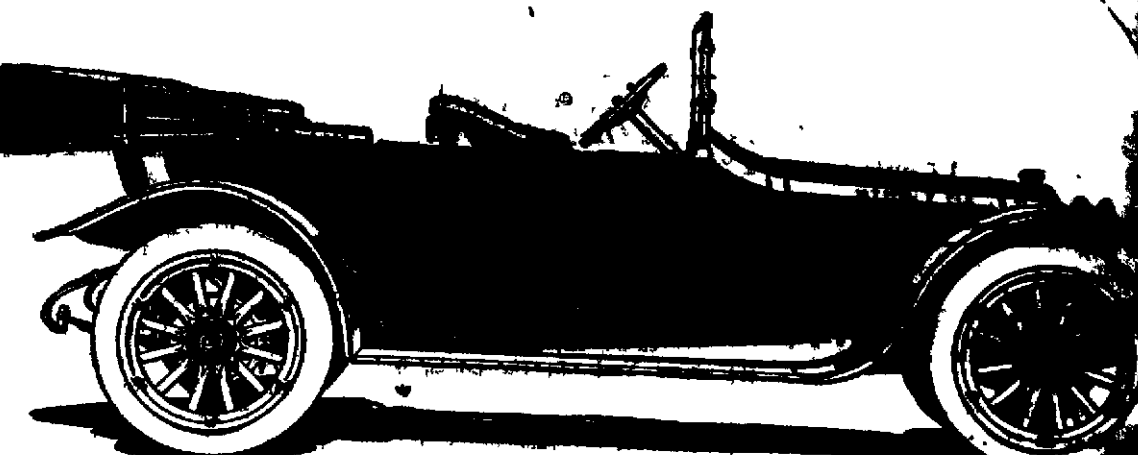

When you decide to advertise a certain article pick out its best points. Then briefly tell what they are. Emphasize in big type.

Then you'll get results.

PHILIPSBURG HAS VERY SUCCESSFUL DOLLAR DAY

The following account of Philipsburg's "Dollar Day", taken from the Philipsburg Evening Journal, issue of July 19.

One needs but to walk through the business section to be convinced that something unusual is taking place in Philipsburg. From early morning the streets have been filled with visitors as well as local residents. A tour of the various houses of business trade.

The various stores will remain open this evening so that opportunity will be given all to take advantage of the special values offered.

Quantity always regulates price, thus with the housewife making purchases in quantity today. The merchant is enabled to make special prices that are attractive.

Philipsburg has an unusual high class of stores. This does not apply to a particular class, but to all. If the opportunity is given local merchants they stand ready to meet all competition and secure for a purchaser merchandise that will meet every demand. If you have not been down today and expended a "Dollar," do so this evening. Start now by "BUYING AT HOME." Give the HOME MERCHANT A CHANCE.

EDITORS AT TRAVERSE CITY.

Traverse City, July 20.—Traverse City is entertaining for two days the annual convention of the West Michigan Press Association. More than fifty per cent. of the members of the association arrived in their own automobiles and the majority of them were accompanied by their families. The convention is largely in the nature of a social gathering and little time will be devoted to business. Receptions, luncheons and excursion trips to near-by points of interest are the chief features of the two-day program.

INDIANA DEMOCRATIC EDITORS.

Michigan City, July 20.—The men who work with pen and brain all the year round to keep the Democracy of the Hoosier State in fighting trim came to the city today to meet together and to listen to the words of Democratic leaders. The occasion of the gathering is the annual summer outing of the Indiana Democratic Editorial Association. Gov. Samuel M. Ralston, John A. M. Adair, the Democratic nominee for governor, and other prominent leaders have been invited to address the meeting.

In the way of entertainment the three days' meeting will be featured by a banquet, boat rides on Lake Michigan and a trip to Chicago.

Pity the Man Who Doesn't Advertise!

By BREEN.

"I have an established business, I don't require advertising."

That is the answer of some self satisfied man to a request for advertising. Meanwhile his progressive neighbor is using printer's ink lavishly.

The result is obvious. It's only a question of time. The self satisfied business man soon finds his trade disappearing. His progressive neighbor goes ahead with leaps and bounds. Every business, no matter how firmly established, needs advertising. If it isn't advertised it soon will be in a rut. Don't get in a rut. Advertise.

HAIR CUTS TO COST MORE.

Hastings, July 20.—The wearing of poetic locks, the kind that fall over the ears and curl up at the ends, is likely to find much favor with the men of this section as a result of the action of the barbers in putting into effect today a new scale of prices. By unanimous agreement of the Nebraska Association of Barbers the price of a hair cut has been raised from 25 to 35 cents, with the cost of shaves, facial massage, singeing and other tonsorial operations increased in proportion. The barbers declare that the higher prices are necessitated by the increased cost of supplies. Some of the disgruntled persons assert that they will go back to the old bowl idea of scissors clipping before they will submit to the "extortion."

TO THE CONTESTANTS.

1. The Progress automobile contest will close promptly at 10 o'clock Saturday evening, absolutely no variation will be made from this rule. All subscriptions and blank vote ballots that are secured, or that are being held in reserve, positively must be at The Progress office at or before the above time. No credit can be given for subscriptions or reserve votes not actually turned in.
2. All subscriptions turned in by the contestants must be made out on the regular subscription blanks supplied for that purpose, and all blanks should be plainly marked whether new, old or extension subscriptions. Contestants should fill out the blanks as the subscriptions are received to avoid delay when they are being turned in.
3. All candidates are earnestly requested to turn in the bulk of their subscriptions as early as possible on Saturday as this will help to reduce the great rush that is sure to come on Saturday night, and will also permit the business of each candidate to be handled more privately.
4. Votes on all voluntary subscriptions turned in direct to this office will be made out and cast for the contestants named by the subscribers when the subscriptions are received. All subscriptions must be paid for as turned in.
5. All contestants should be very careful not to tell anyone how high they expect their votes to go at the finish, and they should entirely disregard any wild rumors that may be circulated regarding the votes of the various candidates.
6. All unused subscription books and blanks must be returned to The Progress office at the close of the contest.
7. Absolutely no information will be given out from this office regarding the possible standing of the various contestants until after the judges have announced the results of the final vote count and awarded the prizes. The decision of the judges will be absolute and final.

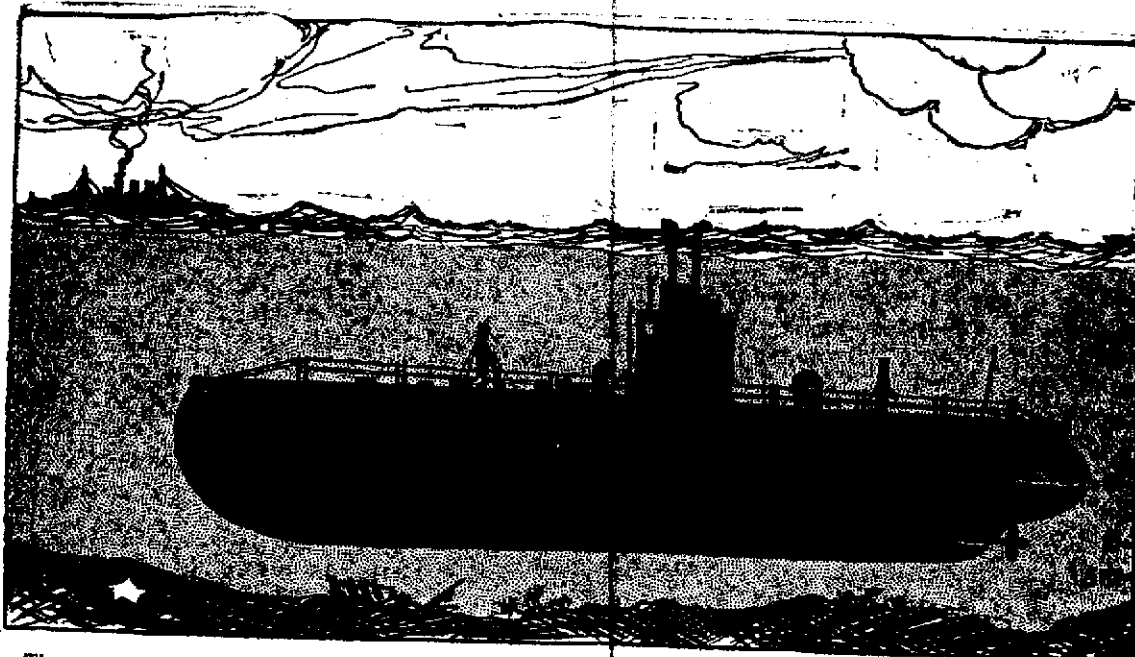

Just two more days and the big, friendly race for the many valuable prizes offered by The Progress will be at an end. Just two, big, promising and really wonderful days, all too short but each filled with possibilities, hopes and strenuous activity for all of the many active individuals who aspire to stand at the head of the list when the final reckoning comes.

The finish of The Progress contest and particularly the competition for the first prize, the Overland automobile, is sure to be the most exciting even of its kind ever witnessed in Clearfield County or in fact in this section of Pennsylvania, and the final vote count of the judges will reveal numbers undreamed of by the many hundreds of persons who have been carefully and anxiously following the progress of the contest. This is already assured by the very large reserve votes that are being held by many of the contestants as well as by the splendid success that all of the contestants are having in the subscription getting during this final week of the race. Many of the long term subscriptions are now coming in and the vanguards of the final landslide of votes are already arriving. Many of the contestants will, themselves, be surprised at the total number of votes they will poll for many of the last subscriptions will be for two, three and five years, while many subscriptions already given the contestants will be extended for a similar time. Then too there will be subscriptions sent in by mail from a distance and there will be many persons who will call in person at The Progress office, as they are doing every day, and have their subscription votes credited to the worker of their choice. All of these details will materially increase the standing of every candidate for the prizes and the distinguished honors that are so soon to be theirs.

Judges Named Tomorrow.
The official judges for the final counting of the votes and awarding of the contest prizes will be named in The Progress tomorrow and we are sure that the personnel of the committee which will have charge of this important task will meet with the hearty approval of everyone. The unquestioned integrity of these gen-

How the Deutschland Must Sneak Out in Sixty Feet of Water.

The supreme test of the navigating ability of Captain Paul Koenig and the success of the German merchant submarine Deutschland will come on his trip out the mouth of Chesapeake Bay from Baltimore. Before he reaches that line else he will be sunk. But at the line there are only sixty feet of water. The depth of the Deutschland from superstructure to keel is forty feet, and that means that the periscopes, wireless and other must be taken down so they will not show above the surface of the water. In sixty feet of water the Deutschland will have ten feet above her and ten feet beneath her at deepest part of the channel. Some navigators believe she will approach the three-mile limit and then rest on the bottom till darkness. At night she may be able to go out with her periscopes a few feet above the water.

LOSE MILLION YEARLY THRU FIRES IN WOODS

Harrisburg, July 20.—At least 5,000,000 acres of land in Pennsylvania are kept in a non-productive state because of forest fires, and at a minimum figure the people of the state are losing $20,000,000 which might be realized from the products of the soil.
"This is the statement made by George H. Wirt, chief forest fire warden, in the first report of the operations of the fire prevention service made to the governor today.
"With repeated fires and continuing erosion the absolutely barren land is on the increase," declares the report, which estimates that 500,000 acres of forest land in the state is damaged by fire annually. The state loses $1,000,000 a year directly from fires in the woods.

POSSIBILITY OF TRADE WAR DEPRECIATED TODAY

Washington, July 20.—(By United Press)—A possibility of a trade war with England from her blacklist policies is depreciated by many officials here today. They say that the Bryan Arbitration treaty might prevent the United States from taking any retaliation measures for a year. By that time the necessity for the blacklist will have ceased.

CONNELLSVILLE HAS CASE OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS

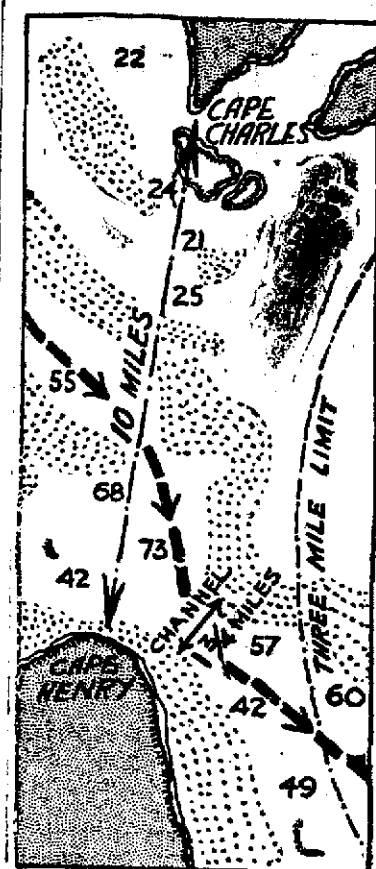

Connellsville, Pa., July 20.—(By United Press)—A case of infantile paralysis was reported today to the health authorities. Carl Cagle, five years old is the victim, and is the first case in this section. Every effort is being put forth by the physicians here to prevent the spread of the disease.

ALTOONA MAN KILLED

Altoona, July 20.—(By United Press)—John C. Eberley, employee of the Pennsylvania R. R. shop was run down by a shifting engine today, and it was necessary to jack the engine up to recover the body. Although terribly mangled, Eberley lived ten minutes after he was taken out.

Men will give ample assurance that the final auditing of the votes will be done in a most careful and accurate manner and that each candidate will receive entirely fair and equal treatment to the very end, as has been the case throughout the contest.

Where the Deutschland Must Leave America

The deepest channel for the Deutschland in her trip out of Chesapeake Bay is sixty feet at the three-mile limit, and it is close along the shore near Cape Henry. The British warships will be waiting to attack unless she submerges before she reaches the open sea.

STRIKING CARMEN DYNAMITE CAR AS IT LEAVES BARN

Motorman Receives Serious Injuries and Will Lose Sight of One Eye.

Wilkesbarre, July 20.—(By United Press)—Another trolley car of the local traction company was blown up by dynamite today making the second attempt in two days to kill the strike breakers when the first car out this morning on the West Pittston run was blown into splintered timbers and the motorman and conductor miraculously escaped instant death. The latter was unhurt and the former sustaining lacerations of the body and will probably lose the sight of one eye. He is in the West Side hospital in a serious condition.

Because of the boycott there were no passengers aboard at the time. Another traction company car on the Ashley line was dynamited late on Tuesday night and the explosion shattered the windows of several buildings. But the crew in some unaccountable manner escaped unhurt. As in the attack this morning, there were no passengers on the Ashley car when it was blown up. The local street car strike has been in progress since October 14, 1915.

SUNBURY MAN ELECTROCUTED

Sunbury, Pa., July 20.—(By United Press)—James Shaffer, 38, was electrocuted at Milton, near here today, when he came into contact with live wire 2300 volts passed through his body.

DEUTSCHLAND IS STILL DOCKED AT BALTIMORE

Baltimore, July 20.—(By United Press)—Dawn today found the German sub-sea freighter Deutschland still docked here, flanked by obscuring barges. Maneuvers before day light led to the belief that she intended to make a dash for the capes but what her plans now may be is hidden in a mystery darker than the mud beneath her. A run for the capes before or after nightfall seems logical and probable. During the night her hatches were fastened and her fore and aft masts telescoped, so that only her periscope showed.

HARRISBURG RAILWAY STRIKE ENDED TODAY

Company Gives Way on Ground of Public Opinion.

Harrisburg, July 20.—(By United Press)—Officials of the Harrisburg Railway company gave way today on the grounds of public opinion. President Frank B. Muser of the Traction company and other officials went into conference with a committee of the local union. Meanwhile the jitneys outnumbered the cars of the company fifty to one. Fifteen cars were taken out of the barn this morning, being manned by strike breakers, many who were not in uniform. This is the smallest number of cars in operation since Sunday.

STEEL WORKERS GRANTED EIGHT PERCENT INCREASE

Chester, W. Va., July 20.—(By United Press)—The American Sheet and Tin Plate company made public notice today advising its employees in a number of departments, of an 8 per cent. increase in wages, effective on August 1st. This is the second increase granted since the first of the year. Last February a 4 per cent. increase was granted.

HUNDREDS OF BIG SHARKS ARE CITED NEAR VIRGINIA

Philadelphia July 20.—(By United Press)—Hundreds of sharks, some of them 12 to 14 feet long were cited a few miles from the Virginia coast by the crew of the British steamship Capac, which arrived today from Chili. The sharks followed so closely beside the ship waiting for morsels to be thrown overboard that the sailors could easily have hit them. They followed the ship until it actually entered Delaware Cape.

NUMBER OF CASES OF EPIDEMIC DECREASING

New York, July 20.—(By United Press)—A decided decrease in the number of new cases of infantile paralysis showed in reports of the health department today, and is what physicians regard as the first real test day of the week in determining the course of the epidemic. New cases today numbered 119 against 112 yesterday. 31 additional deaths were reported as against 30 yesterday. The report today was considered distinctly encouraging.

Constitutionalist cavalry and killed. Carranza's commander reported today that he expected to engage the main body of Villistas at an early date. If the Constitutional forces are successful in capturing or killing Villa, it was the opinion here that this would mark the beginning of the end of internal trouble in Mexico city.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON TO MANAGE CINCINNATI TEAM

Cincinnati, July 20.—(By United Press)—A deal was closed at noon today by which Christy Mathewson will become the manager of the Cincinnati baseball club. He will take charge today.

The only thing that can stop the deal going through is the fact that Charley Herzog, the present manager, refuses to come to terms with the New York club to which he goes. The Reds get Bill McKenzie a third baseman and Ed. Rousch outfielder, in addition to Mathewson, says Herzog. Wade Kilmer goes to the Giants. It was announced that "no strings" are attached to the deal for Mathewson, and that no cash changed hands.

By Withers & Peacock

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Paris, July 20.—With the British armies against the new German positions, behind the lines, the British north of the Somme are being carefully and drenched with a destructive fire of British high explosives in preparation for a new attack. Giant British shells are now dropping upon German works from guns standing miles to the rear. British artillery pieces of large and small caliber firing in unison are systematically pounding the new German front line.

The roar of the guns is continuous, and resembles the roll of thunder. The Germans are replying only occasionally. They are either without guns or are saving their ammunition. British air craft are directing the fire of the artillery. Since the beginning of the Anglo-French offensive, German air craft have been surprisingly absent. The allied flyers and balloon observers have been working in perfect security and obtaining most valuable information.

French troops resumed their offensive on both sides of the river Somme last night, and with successful results on both north and south of Flanders. It was officially announced that North of the Somme the French had attacks and established new positions along the Combles-Cherisy railway taking 400 prisoners. South of the Somme the French stormed and captured the capital line trench between Barleux and Soye.

British Take Last Ground
London, July 20.—(By United Press)—A little more ground taken by the Germans in their counter attack at Longueval and in Duilleul Wood has been recaptured by the British. General Haig reported this afternoon. North of Longueval on the Bazentine line, the British advanced their lines this morning and made substantial gains.

An official investigation of the Dardanelles-Mesopotamia campaign has been decided upon by the English government. Premier Asquith informed the house of commons this afternoon.

Russians Occupy Kugl
Petrograd, July 20.—Russian troops have occupied the village of Kugl. It was announced today, preventing the enemy's efforts to advance in the Ougli region.

UNIDENTIFIED NEGRO FOUND ON R. R. AT FULLER

Officials Trying to Find Relatives—Body Badly Mutilated

The body of an unidentified young colored man about 20 years of age, was found yesterday morning at 6 o'clock on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks one mile west of Fuller by the crew of the eastbound P. R. freight train. The body was horribly mutilated remains are now in a morgue in Brookville, while the railroad authorities are trying to establish the dead man's identity.

TODAY IS VISITORS DAY AT Y. M. C. A. CAMP

Boys all Settled now and Enjoying Camp Life

Today is "visitors day" at the Union Y. M. C. A. camp at Bellows along the Susquehanna river a short distance above Lumber City. Many automobile parties from Clearfield will visit the camp today. From all reports the camp is the best ever held by the three associations, everything being carried out according to plans which had been formulated before the camp opened. The boys are enjoying some splendid meals as the menu is probably the best the camp has ever had. Secretary Lewis of the Clearfield Y. M. C. A. reports that all the boys are now settled and enjoying the camp life to the fullest extent.

A LITTLE TOO PREVIOUS!

As the peaceful U-boat departs from Baltimore with ominous threats coming from German press and publicists that it is on the cards for Germany to renew the submarine warfare in its most ruthless aspects it would seem that Mayor Preston, of that easily stampeded city, who up to the last minute was ordering receptions and courtesies for the crew and the officers of the daring merchantman, might well take thought with himself and wonder what he has been up to anyhow. Hearty appreciation of the spectacular seamanship of the Deutschland is one thing; stopping over on the officials of a country whose submarines have been guilty of the most frightful crimes against humanity and neutrality is quite another. And Mayor Preston in the quiet as he chews over the sweet and bitter cup of reflection may wake up some day and realize that his courtesy has been absolutely misinterpreted in Germany and will go far to make any further discussion of the submarine controversy more futile than past discussion has been. Really, can not we have a little judicious reticence, a little dignity, in those who for one reason or another are supposed to speak for the United States on chance occasions?—Public Ledger.

UNSOLDIERLY COMPLAINTS.

It is fair to assume that the men in the ranks of the Pennsylvania regiments on the Mexican border have not been the authors of the complaints which have been sent north during the last few days concerning their treatment and their surroundings. The contributors to the Public Ledger's Soldiers' Letter Box have written in a very different spirit, recognizing that they were not off upon a midsummer picnic and that hardships were part of the soldiers' lot and to be endured with what philosophy they could command. If some of the officers have displayed a different temper, it is to be regretted that they have been enabled to reach the public ear and to convey a wrong impression concerning the attitude of the troops that have been mustered into the Federal service. The state can not be too solicitous for the proper care of its citizen soldiers, and the reports of improper and inadequate transportation accommodations during the movement of troops south were properly made the subject of investigation and protest. But the intimations that come from El Paso of discontent because of a change of camp sites and the intimation that there has been discrimination by regular army officers against the militia will arouse small sympathy at home. Hardship and discomfort are part of the lot of the men in khaki, and whining complaints are the last sounds the country will expect to hear from them.—Public Ledger.

One of the surprises in connection with the war is the effect it has had upon the Czarina of Russia. For years she has suffered from nervous prostration, which the great specialists of Europe have failed to cure. But the war has achieved the impossible, and the Czarina is now quite her old self. It is supposed that the demands made upon her time and attention are really responsible for the cure.

Today's Geographic Study of The Great European War Zone

Baiburt, the Turkish city of Asia Minor where the Russians are reported to have gained a signal advantage recently, is the subject of the following war geography bulletin issued by the National Geographic society from Washington:

"Situated on both banks of the Churuk river, which rises nearly and flows northeast into the Black sea at Batum after a course of 200 miles, Baiburt was a town of 10,000 inhabitants at the beginning of the war. It owes whatever commercial importance it possesses to the productive agricultural lands in its vicinity and to the fact that the carriage road running from Trebizond to Erzerum passes through the latter city lying 50 miles in an air line to the southeast and Trebizond about the same distance to the northwest. Surrounding the town is a fertile plateau by the elevation of nearly a mile above the Black sea which would be almost visible to the north were it not for the Pacific range of mountains. Erzerum is 50 miles to the southwest.

"With practically no industries and with only a poor bazaar, Baiburt offers no point of special interest to the traveler. Even the castle which crowns a mass of rocks on the left bank of the Churuk is a crumbling ruin, the relic of days when Armenians and Seljiks ruled this region. But the city is of historic significance as the most westerly point reached by the Russian army under the renowned General Ivan Fedorovich Paskevich in the Russo-Turkish war of 1828-1829. The occupation of Baiburt by Gen. Paskevich marked the culmination of a brilliant campaign which in some respects parallels the present westward drive of the Czar's forces. While the Black sea fleet bombarded and seized Port, just as Trebizond was occupied many months ago, Paskevich advanced from Tiflis and in the course of a two-seasons' campaign captured Akhalzik and Ardahan, just as Erzerum was forced to yield in the present struggle.

"The Grand Duke Nicholas, under whose direction the Russian troops are fighting on the Baiburt plateau, has a keen historic incentive in the triumphs associated with the name of Paskevich. This great soldier became an aid-de-camp to his Czar at the age of 18 and when only 23 years old took part in the battle of Austerlitz, having accompanied the Russian expedition sent to aid the Austrians against Napoleon. He was a general officer at the age of 30 and after a distinguished share in the battle of Leipzig he became a lieutenant general. The first of his exploits in the battlefield where the Grand Duke is now fighting, was his brilliant conduct of the campaign against Persia in the war of 1826, and when, two years later, after the Shah had been forced to sue for peace, Russian began her drive against the Turks, Paskevich was placed in supreme command of the Asia Minor forces. A million rubles, a diamond-mounted sword and the title of Count of Erivan were among the gifts showered upon the soldier who was now a field marshal at the age of 47, having brought his campaign to a close at Baiburt. Two years later Paskevich was created Prince of Warsaw, and was entrusted with the viceroyalty of Poland. Such was the distinguished career of a Russian officer on the Caucasus frontier, and such his Little Father's recognition of his achievements.

"Manhattan, mentioned as the scene of a violent night battle at the same time that the Russians were driving the Turks from the heights east of Baiburt, is 30 miles south of the latter city and half way between Erzerum and Erzurum."

ON THE SCREEN

"HOODOO ANN"

Mae Marsh the star of "The Birth of a Nation" will be presented at the opera house tomorrow evening in a Triangle film called "Hoodoo Ann." This tells the story of a little girl in an orphan asylum, who heroically rescues one of the other girls at a fire, attracts the attention of a wealthy couple and is adopted by them. The film comes from a series of unfortunate events, in which Ann figures, that give people the idea that she is hoodooed. One of these occurrences is when she is practicing with a revolver she accidentally shoots her next door neighbor. In addition to this picture tomorrow night will be "By Stern Delivery" a great 2 reel Keystone comedy.

"THE PICTOGRAPH"

Some time ago the Paramount pictures put out a film called the "Pictograph" or the magazine of the screen. It contains several very interesting departments, such as Preparedness, edited by the leaders in the movement for better protection for the U. S. Better Babies, edited by the Woman's Home Companion, Political Cartoons, by several big city papers, Fashions by the Delinquent Psychology by Prof. Von Wortzenburg, etc. This picture will be shown at the opera house, starting tonight and a different one every Thursday evening.

INTEREST IN WELSH-WHITE BOAT.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 20.—Daring fans are attaching much interest to the ten-round bout between Freddie Welsh and Charlie White, which is to take place in this city tomorrow night. Ever since his last meeting with Welsh the Chicago lightweight has been looked upon as probably the most formidable contender for the championship. As both men are fast, clever boxers, ring followers are looking forward to seeing one of the fastest bouts of the year.

SPEEDY COURTSHIP ENDS IN MARRIAGE.

New York, July 20.—A courtship that is probably close to the speed record was that which culminated in the marriage today of Miss Cussie, Eugenie Lazarovich, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Morris Lazarovich, and Joseph Helms, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Helms of this city. Miss Lazarovich met Mr. Helms for the first time on July 2 while visiting in Atlantic City, and they became engaged two days later. The families of both bride and bridegroom are well known in Jewish social circles in this city.

RUMORS STATE AUSTRIANS TREAT PRISONERS BADLY

Hundreds Die From Exposure, Hunger or Typhoid Fever.

London, July 20.—Terrible stories of the treatment of prisoners in the Austrian internment camps have reached here from what is declared to be an authoritative Italian source. Some of the details are of such a character as to be impossible for publication. On the outbreak of war all the population of Galicia known to have Russian sympathies were incarcerated in the provincial jails.

When the Russians invaded Galicia some 8,000 men, women and children (mostly of gentle birth,) were sent to the aviation camp at Thalerhof. At first they were all obliged to sleep and live promiscuously in the open. Their clothes by this time were in rags, and there were no sanitary arrangements. Many of the women and children died of hunger, exposure and typhoid. Shortly afterwards about a thousand of the interned men and women were herded together in a barn not more than 80 feet long. Any who refused to do the horrible tasks ordered them were stripped naked and flogged before the whole of the guard.

The dead were buried by their fellow prisoners just under the surface of the ground within the camp enclosure. One man who had been buried as dead turned up alive after 3 days, having succeeded in removing the thin surface of earth covered him.

The officer in command of the camp published an order in which he told his soldiers to show their loyalty to Austria by murdering as many prisoners as possible, as they were all traitors to their country. The soldiers, therefore, provoked the prisoners and tried to make them disobey orders so as to be justified in shooting them. A man having picked up and placed in his lips a cigarette that a sentry had thrown to him was instantly shot on the ground that prisoners were not allowed to smoke.

A copy of this order, it is believed, got aboard, and some after the officer was removed. The new commanding officer caused baths to be built in order to attempt to stop the spread of infectious disease, but the prisoners, men and women, were obliged to march naked to the baths, and to wait, often in the snow, until their turn came and until all had finished before being marched back again. The women, especially, were subject to all kinds of outrages, and while bathing were obliged to pose before the cameras of the officers who came from Graz to visit the camp.

This treatment is said to have lasted until Italy joined in the war, after which it became more humane, all the hate being turned against the new enemy.

FRANCE WILL RELEASE ALL AMERICANS IN CASE OF WAR

Will Give Discharge to Americans in French Army.

By Henry Wood

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, July 20.—In the event of war between the United States and Mexico or any other country, France will at once release from enlistment all the Americans now serving with the French army who may wish to return home and fight for their own country.

The officials decision of France to this effect was today communicated to the United Press by high officials of the ministry of foreign affairs.

Despite the statement recently published in German papers in America that 30,000 Americans are serving with the Allied Armies, France is unable to account for more than about 900 of them.

The release of the 70 American aviators now serving with the French army would give the United States the nucleus for an aviation service of the most priceless kind. All would be able to place at the disposal of the United States all of the secrets of French military aviation, which is universally conceded to have attained a most high degree of effectiveness.

What an influence the return of these men to America might have in all parts of the country, is indicated in the following list just prepared by the foreign office of the original American enlistments showing how they are divided among almost all the states of the union:

New York, 187; Michigan, 140; Illinois, 60; Massachusetts, 58; Pennsylvania, 51; Ohio, 50; Minnesota, 29; Washington, 27; Wisconsin, 20; Missouri, 19; Indiana, 19; California, 18; Iowa, 15; Alabama, 14; Rhode Island, 11; Oregon, 11; Nebraska, 11; North Dakota, 10; Connecticut, 10; Virginia, 9; Texas, 9; Vermont, 8; Colorado, 8; Tennessee, 6; Kentucky, 6; Maryland, 6; Idaho, 5; Maine, 5; Louisiana, 5; Kansas, 5; Florida, 4; New Jersey, 4; New Hampshire, 3; Oklahoma, 2; District of Columbia, 2; Arizona, 2; North Carolina, 2; Georgia, 2; Wyoming, 2; Arkansas, 1; West Virginia, 1.

The above list comprises only the original 875 American enlistments in the French Foreign legion. Those that have followed however, have practically the same general distribution as to states.

13-YEAR-OLD BOY IN BRITISH TRENCHES.

London, July 20.—There is a quiet, modest boy in a London suburb, the only support of his widowed mother, who has had his baptism of fire at an age when most boys are still at school. James Charles Bartaby was only thirteen years old when he succeeded, after many attempts, in joining the 7th East Surrey. Three months later he was in the front line of trenches, fighting side by side with men most of whom had double and even treble his years. He was in the firing line for nine strenuous, perilous months; and then he was wounded by shrapnel in the leg. In the hospital the army doctor discovered his real age, and on recovery he was discharged. But on his return to London he found difficulty in getting work. So he attempted to join the fighting forces again, and managed to get accepted in a battalion of an old regiment. But after his second course of army training, and while he was actually again en route for France, he was, to use his own words, "found out," and sent home for the second time.

Big Business Recognizes Publicity.

By BREEN.

In latter years the biggest enterprises in this country have recognized the value of advertising. The men in charge of their advertising campaigns are paid splendid salaries. In fact, no branch of the business receives more attention. Publicity and advertising form the keynote of success.

If big business needs advertising doesn't small business need it?

Every man in business needs advertising. If his business is a success he needs advertising to keep it so. If his business is struggling liberal advertising will build it up.

Why

Excessive upkeep

When the venerable American bird on the back of that shiny-piece in your pocket cries out against the high cost of flivving, you want adjust your goggles, pull down your vest and look the matter squarely in its good eye. Poor lubrication, with its direct relation to so many car-troubles, is the first line of trenches to be taken in the Battle against Excessive Upkeep.

Just as Atlantic Gasoline, the accepted standard, was the answer to your fuel problems, so Atlantic Motor Oils are the answer to your lubrication problems.

For eight out of ten cars, Atlantic Polarine is exactly right. Under certain conditions, and with certain types of motors, one of the other three principal motor oils—Atlantic "Light," Atlantic "Medium" or Atlantic "Heavy"—may give better results. Your garageman will tell you which to use.

The important thing to nail to your memory is that one of these four oils, at any rate, is the correct lubricant for your particular car.

This statement is backed by a corps of oil experts in the employ of the oldest and largest lubricant manufacturers in the whole world.

They know oils, and they know cars, too. Better take their advice and use Atlantic Motor Oils.

Read up on this subject. We have published a handsome and comprehensive book about lubrication. It is free. Ask your garage for it. If they cannot supply you drop us a postal and the book will be sent you without charge.

Only Misfortune Followed Former Occupants of Summer White House

Long Branch, N. J., July 20.—(By United Press)—President Wilson will arrive here soon to occupy the summer capital, "Shadow Lawn", and receive formal notification of his nomination. His sojourn in this heretofore unlucky mansion should be lucky for it is the thirtieth year since the magnificent place built by the late John A. McCall of the New York Life Insurance company, in 1903, was opened.

Only misfortune followed the three persons who have previously lived here.

McCall, who spared no expense and who is credited with having spent a million dollars on "Shadow Lawn" and its sixty-five acres of ground, beautified with over fifty thousand dollars worth of shrubbery and trees, an containing an artificial lake and a fifty thousand dollar stable and garage spent only one reason in the big white building on the hill before trouble came thick upon him.

Joseph White the Texas postage-stamp millionaire who founded his fortune on a bid for bonds in the second Cleveland administration made it his home for several years before his financial collapse.

J. B. Greenhut the New York merchant prince, who next purchased it, last year became a bankrupt. But the superstitions say the rule of three having been followed to the end, the hoodoo now is broken. Besides "13" is President Wilson's lucky number, he says.

The hopes of Long Beach and its wealthy summer colony have long centered in the place being the Summer White House. It has been regarded as almost too pretentious and dignified for a mere private residence.

Shadow Lawn today is a Mecca for motorists, and is visited by hundreds of sightseers daily. From the upper stories may be seen the summer homes of Presidents Grant and Garfield on the ocean, less than a mile away. An idea of the size of the building may be gained from the fact that twenty-five telephones have been installed for the convenience of the President's household.

Last fall former Senator James Smith, Jr. made the suggestion that it was ideally located for the Presi-

THE STEPHENS-ASHURST BILL

To Protect the Public Against Dishonest Advertising and False Pretenses in Merchandising

What is the "Stephens-Ashurst" Bill?

A bill introduced in Congress by Senator Henry F. Ashurst of Arizona, and by Representative Dan V. Stephens of Nebraska, providing a remedy for the unfair competition of great trading monopolies.

What is the character of this unfair competition?

Chiefly in advertising at "cut prices" well-known goods as a means of inducing the public to buy unknown goods of doubtful quality.

What is the purpose of the cut-price concern?

To use the reputation of a reliable article as a bait to catch the consumers, and deceive them into believing that all their goods offered for sale are sold at the same low rate of profit.

Are the expenses of the great trading monopolies less than those of the average retail merchant?

No. Trade investigations agree that the cost of doing business by these big city concerns is approximately 30 per cent., while the cost of the average small merchant is 16 per cent.

How then can the predatory price cutters undersell the independent merchant?

They can't; they only seem to. They sell things that people know at cost. On unfamiliar goods they overcharge. The consumer is deceived by the false representation that their mass of unknown goods is sold at the same price reduction offered on a few well-known articles.

What is the effect of this unfair advertising practice?

It destroys the independent merchants of the towns and small cities, builds up great chain-store and mail-order systems, and compels the sale of inferior goods by all classes of dealers.

Is price cutting in the interest of the public?

No. It means the destruction of the usual retail channels by which goods reach the consumers to their best advantage. It forces the sale of unknown articles, often of cheap and shoddy quality, instead of reliable goods which have their maker's reputation behind them. It promotes substitution.

What will be the result of the general extension of the practice throughout the country?

The ruin of hundreds of thousands of independent merchants; the concentration of trade in vast monopolies located in a few great cities; a decline in prosperity and population of the villages, towns and small cities and the ultimate injury of the consumers, by placing them at the mercy of monopolies which will then be able to extort such profits as they please for the sale of such goods as they choose to handle.

How will the bill aid in giving relief from cut-throat monopoly creating methods?

By preventing the unfair and dishonest use of well-known goods as advertising bait, and guaranteeing a uniform price to all consumers.

Will the bill operate in any way to give trade-marked goods a monopoly?

Not at all. The bill explicitly states that its provisions shall not apply to any article that is produced or controlled by a monopoly. If any manufacturer asked higher prices than his goods were worth, the public would refuse to buy, and new makers would quickly enter the field.

How can all who are interested in the prosperity and growth of our villages, towns and small cities aid in having the bill passed?

By writing at once to the U. S. Senators from their State, and the Congressman from their District, urging them to support the Stephens-Ashurst Bill, and use their influence in its favor.

NEBRASKA'S BIG WHEAT CROP IN SPLENDID CONDITION

Lincoln, Neb., July 20.—(By United Press)—Nebraska's big wheat crop today is in the shock and stack in splendid condition.

While less wheat acreage was planted in this state this year than last, weather conditions more than made up for this difference and Nebraska has one of the best wheat crops in her history. It is believed that the total crop will not be far below 100,000,000 bushels. The grain is of good quality.

Last year the crop was enormous, but the value was cut about 30 per cent by the persistent rains in harvest time. This year, weather conditions have been ideal. The dry early part of the season prevented the grain running to stalk, and the later plentiful rains brought out the heads well. There also was very slight damage by hail this year, while a year ago there was considerable damage in some sections of the state. The wheat this year is also heavier than usual.

Cutting began at the southern Nebraska line about July 1, and practically all the Nebraska crop is now in the stack or being threshed.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Troubles You

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked, from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Plans for the return trip have not been made.

"AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US"

London, June 25.—(By Mail)—A British army chaplain returned from France today told of stopping at a wayside shrine in Flanders, where Belgian soldiers, kneeling in prayer, were following the chant of their priest until the father started the paternoster. At the words: "As we forgive those who trespass against us," there was silence. Not a man replied.

The priest hesitated and started again. Suddenly a steady voice rang out from the back, clearly intoning the words that pledge one to forgive his enemies. It was the voice of Albert, King of Belgians. His soldiers then repeated after him, word for word.

Some advertisers make the mistake of trying to crowd a page of type into a few inches.

Display your ad. Make it catchy.

If you buy a few inches in a newspaper don't try to make them carry a couple of hundred words. Newspaper readers will not wear strong glasses to read small type.

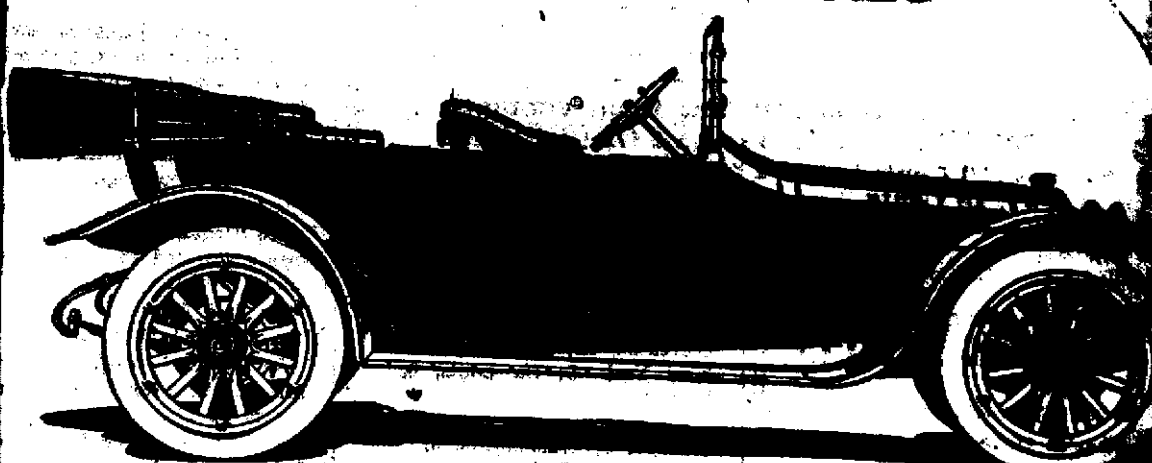

When you decide to advertise a certain article pick out its best points. Then briefly tell what they are. Emphasize in big type.

Then you'll get results.

PHILIPSBURG HAS VERY SUCCESSFUL DOLLAR DAY

The following account of Philipsburg's "Dollar Day", taken from the Philipsburg Evening Journal, issue of July 19.

One needs but to walk through the business section to be convinced that something unusual is taking place in Philipsburg. From early morning the streets have been filled with visitors as well as local residents. A tour of the various houses of business trade.

The various stores will remain open this evening so that opportunity will be given all to take advantage of the special values offered.

Quantity always regulates price, thus with the housewife making purchases in quantity today. The merchant is enabled to make special prices that are attractive.

Philipsburg has an unusual high class of stores. This does not apply to a particular class, but to all. If the opportunity is given local merchants they stand ready to meet all competition and secure for a purchaser merchandise that will meet every demand. If you have not been down today and expended a "Dollar," do so this evening. Start now by "BUYING AT HOME." Give the HOME MERCHANT A CHANCE.

EDITORS AT TRAVERSE CITY.

Traverse City, July 20.—Traverse City is entertaining for two days the annual convention of the West Michigan Press Association. More than fifty per cent. of the members of the association arrived in their own automobiles and the majority of them were accompanied by their families. Pity the Man Who Doesn't Advertise!

By BREEN.

"I have an established business, I don't require advertising."

That is the answer of some self satisfied man to a request for advertising. Meanwhile his progressive neighbor is using printer's ink lavishly.

The result is obvious. It's only a question of time. The self satisfied business man soon finds his trade disappearing. His progressive neighbor goes ahead with leaps and bounds. Every business, no matter how firmly established, needs advertising. If it isn't advertised it soon will be in a rut. Don't get in a rut. Advertise.

HAIR CUTS TO COST MORE.

Hastings, July 20.—The wearing of poetic locks, the kind that fall over the ears and curl up at the ends, is likely to find much favor with the men of this section as a result of the action of the barbers in putting into effect today a new scale of prices. By unanimous agreement of the Nebraska Association of Barbers the price of a hair cut has been raised from 25 to 35 cents, with the cost of shaves, facial massage, singeing and other tonsorial operations increased in proportion. The barbers declare that the higher prices are necessitated by the increased cost of supplies. Some of the disgruntled persons assert that they will go back to the old bowl idea of scissors clipping before they will submit to the "extortion."
